What's New in the AutoCAD?

Multi-View: Create or import multi-view drawings, include cross-sections, and view in more than one direction, with cross-sections and hidden lines and detail views. (video: 1:07 min.) File Creation: Create and manage web-based file libraries. Copy and paste files from online services to your Autodesk® account, and then easily access those files anywhere you need them. (video: 1:26 min.) Collaboration and Feedback: Work and collaborate in real time with the LiveMotion® and LiveMotion for SketchUp® technology. Or use face tracking with AutoCAD or AutoCAD LT, making it easier to focus on what you need to get done. Advanced Level Control: Implement advanced concepts and ideas. Add a photo from your device to the drawing, or work with in a PDF, and then export the drawing as a PDF or image. Powerful Design Tools: Create more robust drawings with a wider variety of tools, including wireframe drawing, custom data tools, real-time data control and scripting, and many more. New visual effects: Work in a new, immersive environment. Visual effects on display that are very realistic and easy to see, while giving you more options to create your projects. File Management: Maintain a personal file library with the ability to use cloud services for content. LiveMotion: Create and edit content on the fly. Easily align and animate 3D models in your drawings. Easily visualize and publish multi-directional content. Multi-User: Perform live multi-user collaboration with colleagues, customers, and partners. Join the collaboration and content creation tools live for more efficient and streamlined work. LiveMotion for SketchUp: Integrate AutoCAD and SketchUp (LiveMotion) to create, modify, and publish content on the fly. Smart 2D Layouts: Quickly create on-screen 2D layouts, including window, door, and wall panels, using AutoCAD. Easily choose and place predefined objects, and then quickly measure, label, and order them. Real-Time Data Control: Control data in your drawings directly from Excel, Microsoft Excel Services, Power BI, Azure, SAP HANA, Cognos, and
